(In the space provided below, please explain in detail the reasons for the delay in filing a proper reply)

On November 10, 2004, we filed an amendment and reply to the Office Action dated August 10, 2004 with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) via facsimile for our docket No. PT03307U (US application no. 09/944,615). Attached please find the "Auto Reply Facsimile Transmission", that confirms our amendment filing date along with the entire contents of the faxed response. Also attached please find a copy of a docketing report for PT03307U. In accordance with Motorola policy, a docket report is created for every patent application filed with the USPTO. Our docketing personnel are trained to enter into each appropriate docket report the receipt of all correspondence from the USPTO and any actions taken by Motorola personnel. In view of this docket report, both the docketing clerk and the responsible Motorola attorney are automatically reminded of all important deadlines. For example, for this patent application, the date of receipt of the August 10, 2004 office action and the amendment and reply to the August 10, 2004 office action were recorded. As such, the training of Motorola's employees and its docketing system are designed to keep us from missing important deadlines.

It is our contention that we did file the amendment and reply to the outstanding office action within the time limitations for reply, which the USPTO is claiming was not received. Because we received the facsimile confirmation, we submit that the response was timely filed and inappropriately abandoned by the USPTO, therefore this abandonment was unavoidable pursuant to 37 CFR 1.137(a). As further evidence of the reliability of our docketing system, the Notice of Abandonment and the Petition to Revive were docketed.

In the event the USPTO requires further evidence of Motorola's procedures and docketing records, or if a telephone call would advance the resolution of this case, please feel free to call the attorney of record.

Since, as described above, the Applicant used appropriate diligence with respect to the required response: and the delay was not due to any errors on the Applicant's part. Therefore, Applicant respectfully requests full refund of the petition fee.
